

LEGAL ADVISOR

Alberto Ferreiro

Alberto Ferreiro holds a bachelor's degree in Economic Law from the Universidad de Deusto. His work centres on civil company law, and general commercial law, although his capacity to analyse problems from a global perspective and to provide practical solutions taking all branches of the law into account, is particularly highly valued.

Due to his interest in art and his extensive knowledge of the subject, he has been called on to advise internationally renowned public and private institutions. He currently sits on the Board of Trustees of the Fundación Museo Reina Sofia.
