

CRISTINA EGAÑA

Office Manager & Personal Assistant to Director

Cristina Egaña holds a degree in International Management Assistant from the University of Navarra UNAV and holds a Postgraduate Degree in Administration and Finance from the Rey Juan Carlos University. He is currently pursuing a degree in Business Administration and Management from the European University of Madrid.

Cristina has more than ten years of experience as a Management Assistant in companies from different sectors and has been working on projects related to culture and contemporary art for six years.