

IVETTE STANZIOLA

Integral Projects

For more than ten years, Ivette Stanziola has held positions that have cultivated her expertise in client relations, project management, and business development within the arts.

After receiving three BA - Art History, French, and English - from Williams College and a MA in Art Business from Sotheby's Institute of Art, she began her career at Gagosian Gallery in New York City, where she engaged closely with the works of Richard Serra, Julian Schnabel, and Anselm Kiefer.

As Global Head of VIP Relations for Design Miami/, she led the client relations teams responsible for the Basel and Miami fair editions. She oversaw year-round programming, strategies and initiatives with leading groups of international art patrons and cultural organizations. She later expanded her professional experience by serving as both Director of Investor Relations and Director of Marketing/Communications for a family office specialized in luxury real estate development.

In 2023, she established herself as an independent consultant in art, collectible design, and cultural projects.

She is fluent in English and Spanish, and received proficiency certificates in French (B2.6) and Portuguese (A2).
