

Office Manager

Martin Sarasola

Martin Sarasola holds a degree in Business Administration and Management, as well as a master's in Teacher Training, with solid experience in administrative management and teaching, particularly in multicultural settings. Over more than ten years, he has worked on project and resource organisation and oversight across sectors such as culture, education, and fiscal consultancy. He is a native speaker of Basque, with advanced proficiency in English and French, and a basic knowledge of Italian.

His experience includes teaching vocational modules in digital marketing, logistics, and business applications, and he is skilled in digital tools such as Microsoft Office, Outlook, and Wordpress, contributing strong communication and project management abilities.